According to the decision of the Fifty-seventh Annual Session of Disciples of Christ (Colored) in Eastern North Carolina and Virginia, of the Goldsboro and Raleigh District, the Fifty-eighth Session met on the above date with the Morning Star Church of Christ, Elder W. B. Parks, pastor. The meeting was opened by the Past Presiding Chief Elder, W. A. Fordham, assisted by Elders J. E. Dunn and C. R. D. Whitfield. The latter sang hymn No. 7. Elder Dunn read from the 12th chapter of Romans. Prayer was offered by Elder McArthur. Elder C. R. D. Whitfield then sang "Tis Jesus Christ I Want to Find." The Chief made some remarks explaining the reasons of the late assembling.

In a masterly manner Elder Zollar presented the following theme: "Come, Tarry, Go," from St. Matt. 11:28, St. Luke 24:49 and St. Matt. 28:19. He preached an inspiring sermon which was enjoyed by all. FIRST DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

The Supervisor, Elder C. R. D. Whitfield, sang "Am I a Soldier of the Cross." The Chief, Elder W. A. Fordham, read Rom. 12 and then delivered his annual address. He urged upon the brotherhood the effect of good deportment and against church politics and desecrating the high calling of the ministry by unholy means and trickery. He plead for progress and urged against retrogression. He urged upon the brotherhood to not forget their democracy for favors sake. He outlined the reason for calling the Council Board at Goldsboro, N. C., in 1928, and explained that it was for his inability to get in touch with his official staff that the minutes were late in being gotten out and the shortage in funds why they were not mailed out.

The Chief and house then appointed a Committee on Permanent Organization as follows: Elders J. C. Artis, P. R. Mewborn, A. Parker, G. B. Bordon and E. F. Johnson.

Elders W. R. Steeley, T. B. Hoyle, W. G. Vincent, [illegible] of the Norfolk and Washington Assembly, and Prof. P. H. Moss, Secretary of Religious Education of Kansas City, Kan., and Elder O. Zollar of the Piedmont District Convention (all Disciples of Christ) were presented, made welcome, and given a seat and voice.

Report of the Supervisor

Dear Brothers: I thank God, the Almighty, for His blessings that He has bestowed upon me and the brotherhood of Disciples of Christ since we met last at Ayden, N. C. The death angel has called three of our elders from our ranks—Elders W. M. Cox, G. W. Kelley and J. W. McPhail. The ministers as a whole seem to be doing well in their church work all over the field. Some have added a good many souls to the Church of Christ this year, and two elders are building brick churches —Elder H. D. Davis, in Goldsboro, and Elder S. L. Loftin, in Greenville. The No. 1 District Union held three local meetings at St. Joseph, Kinston; Elm Grove, Pikeville, and Holly Hill, Best. Our Elders' and Deacons' meeting Tuesday after the second Sunday in June was held at Greenleaf Church of Christ. It was a grand session, but the ministers and deacons didn't meet in as large a number as they should have. The deacons and trustees of St. Luke Church, Goldsboro, asked the Supervisor and Council Board to allow them to hold their election the third Sunday in June. It was granted them. The next Ministers' and Laymen's Conference will be held at St. Mark's Church of Christ, Goldsboro, Tuesday of the second Sunday in June.

Councilmen: C. R. D. WHITFIELD,
W. B. PARKS,
S. L. LOFTON,
Substitutes: H. D. DAVIS,
J. S. RAY.

Our School

We also learned the total indebtedness on the school, which you may learn by writing me if interested.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EXAMINATION FOR ORDINATION

We, the Committee on Examination for Ordination, beg to submit the following report, with recommendation:

For ordination: Brothers C. D. Royal and A. L. Hart—out of nine applications.

Brethren, we are realizing more each year the importance of trained leadership in the Church and the great responsibilities that rest upon the entire brotherhood in the discharge of its duties as the instrumentality of moral and spiritual progress, not only in the circles of our several districts, but in the world at large; and the increasing demand for efficiency in all phases of our life makes it mandatory and indispensible on the part of the responsible heads of the brotherhood to use every precaution that the proper safeguards may be thrown around the Church.

Therefore, this committee has set certain definite standards to be reached by all applicants for ordination without regard to sentiments and has made it a policy to act as a Board of Instruction and Guidance toward the attainment of these standards as well as a Board of Examiners. In the working of this policy records of progress made by all applicants will be kept, and all applicants who fail to pass any given examination will be requested to meet the Board in the following General Union Meeting for examination on work in subjects assigned for study at each Assembly. And we list the following subjects for careful study: English, Grammar, United States History, Geography (especially of America and the Holy Land), Reading, Spelling, Arithmetic, the Bible and Bible Dictionary. We recommend our religious papers for extra reading, also a good daily or weekly newspaper and Bible School quarterlies.

Elder J. C. ARTIS
Elder J. F. WHITFIELD
Elder E. F. JOHNSON

REPORT OF COUNCIL BOARD

We, your seven Councilmen, wish to submit the following report: There came seven cases before us at this Assembly. Bro. C. H. Grimes was sent on to the Chief. The case of the Arapahoe Church was referred to the Chief and his assistant for investigation and recommendations. That Elder L. E. Harris' name be dropped from the Elders' roll, inasmuch as his conduct is not becoming a minister. Elder W. M. Godwin's charges were found to be groundless. The Church at Bailey is to pay Elder R. Thompson seven ($7.00) dollars per month until he has been paid. Elder H. L. Shephard is given ninety (90) days to pay that bill to his creditor. Elder W. G. Best is to be paid the one hundred and twenty-five dollars ($125.00) due him by the Church of which he was former pastor.

Respectfully,

Elder C. R. D. WHITFIELD
Elder W. A. FORDHAM, Chief
Elder S. L. LOFTON
Elder J. E. DUNN
Elder H. O. WIGGS
Elder W. G. BEST
Elder W. B. PARKS
Elder B. J. GREGORY, Sec'y.

According to the discussion of the General Assembly in session at Pantego, N. C., 1926, the next general assembly will convene with the Greenleaf Church of Christ, Elder C. R. D. Whitfield, pastor, Tuesday after the third Lord's Day in October, 1930, at 10:00 A. M.

Ordination and preaching service at 7 P. M. Friday.

The devotionals were lead by Elder W. B. Parks, who sang "A Charge to Keep." Prayer was offered by Elder R. B. Banks. Second Timothy 3 was read, and Elder E. F. Johnson offered the ordination prayer, and with the laying on of hands by Elders J. F. Whitfield, R. B. Banks, W. B. Parks, E. F. Johnson, G. T. Taylor and Wm. King, Brothers Royal and Hart were set apart as Elders in the Church.

After an offering of $4.55, Elder Wm. King sang a spiritual song and introduced Elder J. F. Whitfield, who chose a text from I Cor. 3:11, "For Other Foundations Can No Man Lay Than That is Layed." The speaker handled the text in a masterly manner and preached a powerful and soul-stirring sermon, which caused the Holy Spirit to again permeate the building. Elder King sang a hymn and the Fifty-eighth Assembly closed in love and harmony.
